The suggestion mentioned above, if accepted, will facilitate the traders to make payment of the licence fees as otherwise they have, as at present, to go to the Sub-Treasuries for remittances, waiting there for a long time to get chalan receipts.

In G.O.No.989 Food and Agri. dated 14.5.51, the Malabar Coconut and Arecanut Market Committee was permitted to collect licence fees under section 5(1) and 5(3) of the M.C.C.M. Act through its staff as it represented that much difficulty was being experienced on account of the procedure of traders themselves remitting the fees for licences into the Govt. treasury. That Committee was also allowed to remit the fees collected at places where there were no treasuries or sub-treasuries or approved banks, once a week instead of daily as required by rule 68 of the M.C.C.M. Rules, 1948.
